

Kuwait's Premier Newspaper

THE TIMES

No.171/ Mar 11 - 20, 2004

250 FILS

IBC singles out Abdul Razzak Rumane

International Biographical centre, (IBC) Cambridge, England, a leading biographical publisher has published about one and half million biographies of multi cultural elite group of people consisting intellectuals, philosophers, artists, writers, educators, engineers, scientists, researchers and many other professionals for over past thirty seven years.

IBC has singled out merely one hundred illustrious personage from the one and half million biographies for their biographical publication in their new title book "The Lifetime of achievement one hundred" Abdul Razzak Rumane is one of the hundred selected notables whose biography will appear in this magnificent and exclusive book.

Abdl Razzak Rumane is working as senior electrical Engineer in Kuwait and presently supervising a prestigious government project. He has already been listed in various title books published by international publishers. He has attended many international congresses and was honoured with "The world order of science education-culture and has been appointed "Cavalier" by European academy of informatisation during the International conference held at Madrid, Spain.