

What's On

Sodhi being presented a bouquet.

IMWA bids farewell to Sodhi

Indian Muslim Welfare Association, Kuwait organized farewell in honour of Shri K. J.S. Sodhi, Consul at Embassy of India, Kuwait. Shri Sodhi is leaving Kuwait after completing his tenure at Kuwait. The program started with recitation of verses from Holy Quran. Asfaq Ahmed Khan welcomed the audience. Dr Gazi, President IMWA, in his address briefed about the purpose of establishment of IMWA and appreciated the help extended by Sodhi to promote welfare activities for Indian community. He then requested Shri Sodhi to inaugurate IMWA operational cell for Fahaaheel area. Rumane IMWA Secretary in his farewell speech to Shri Sodhi thanked him for attending the function in spite of his busy schedule and said that his name will be associated with IMWA, Fahaaheel cell which will be working for welfare of not only Muslim community but also for other communities in Kuwait. A bouquet was presented to Shri Sodhi on behalf of IMWA. Shri Sodhi in his speech elaborated various welfare activities such as earthquake relief etc carried out by Embassy of India. Dr M.U. Beg gave detailed introduction of IMWA. Prospective new members gave their introduction. IMWA office-bearers also introduced themselves to the audience. Syed Saleem joint secretary presented the vote of thanks.